Business Items: Jim Hilburger's ear hearing implant procedure is doing fine. He will be going for the final step soon and then could have up to six months of rehab. Al Schultz is storing and will store any items that members make and the club will sell at the Erie County Fair "Make-a-Wish" booth next year.

All welcomed back Mary Robbins for her first meeting since her farm accident back in June of '04.

Dues must be paid to the treasure "John Paulin" 1687 Stafford Road, Forestville, N.Y. 14062 prior to the opening of the business session of the January meeting. We will be accepting dues from those people on the waiting list after the January meeting to keep the membership at a total of 80 members.

Show & Tell: Art Griebner – pepper mills, Rich Mialki – dinosaurs, Jim Shimwell – X-mas ornaments, Norm Kosmerl – X-mas ornaments & trucks, Pat Boggan – snowman, Harry Vogel – stack & pull toy, Kurt Hertzog – bowls. Mary Robbins – carved ornaments Thanks for sharing.

Demo: No demo tonight, we had a great Christmas Party with pizza and pop supplied by the club. Many members brought in lots of cookies and goodies. Merry Christmas and thanks to all.

Next Meeting:

Thursday January 5th, 2005,

Al Schultz will demonstrate his method for making letter openers and other craft items.

February Meeting:

On February 2nd, Kurt Hertzog will demonstrate how he pierces and carves on turnings.
