

WESTERN NEW YORK WOODTURNERS CLUB 2

ZOOM MEETING FEBRUARY 11, 2021

Welcome: To our newest member-Jack Lucernoni from Elma and to our guest, Doug,

President Brian Defoe called this meeting to order at 7:00 pm.

Brian will be scheduling wood pickup in the Spring from Jake Debski's wife due to the weather. More info will be provided in the future.

Vice President Report: DEMOS: Tonight-video demo by Jim Hillberger on Peppermills.

February- Colin Knecht---Colin is a talented woodworker and presenter. Check out his videos on YouTube or his website.

March- Demo by our webmaster, John Lilly on turning on hollowing a vase.

April & May- Demos needed (Rusty's picnic demo meeting will be rescheduled due to weather).

If you know someone for our club demos please contact Rusty....

TREASUTRER REPORT:

January 2021: Expenses: $ 150.00 donation for Aspire toys; Gift certificate.

Income: $50.00 dues

TOTALS: $108.50 in petty cash      $3.675.54 Club Balance

Please send in your $10.00 dues for 2021 to Pat Boggan ASAP (email Pat at PJBogan@aol.com for addresss info).

Secretary: No Report

Librarian: If you want to borrow a CD or Book, please contact Jason: JBarker496@gmail.com

Make-A-Wish. Glenn reports they still have not announced if there will be a fair this year. He will provide info as it becomes available. Committee planning will begin in March.

Webmaster: Please send photos of your show and tell products before each meeting to Scott Clark who will enhance the images for our meeting show and tell. Phone photos are ok to send. Scott's email address is: theclarks6280@mac.com. Scott will forward your photos to our webmaster, John L. for posting in your gallery.

Show and Tell Participants:

Rusty- Walnut pencil holder.

Scott- Pens

Rick W.- mice from pallet wood. A great fair project and possible future demo!

Gary Jones- Wedding Goblets with 2 dedicated rings. Gary discussed his food safe finish process which is to seal wedding goblets with water base sanding sealer, then sand with steel wool and apply a coat of clear lacquer. Gary uses Ace brand clear spray lacquer.

Jason Barker-Ice Cream Scoops

Ryan Barker-a thin and shallow bowl turned from Gary Jones' walnut wood!

Paul Boland- Provided info on food safe finishes. Clear epoxy is available from Home Depot

Glenn- Small Birdhouse ornaments; twig pot with flowers (another future demo topic??)

***Tonight's Show and Tell 2021 Dues Winner= Jay Ferrand! Congratulations!

Future Show and Tell Prizes: Ron Hudson will donate spalted wood for March and Pat Boggan will donate colored wood as a prize in April.

Tonight's video demo was by Jim Hilberger on turning a peppermill. It brought back many great memories of this remarkable turner/mentor/club founder. Many thanks to Jason and Scott for making this occur!

Announcements:

-Bill Anderson invited you to join a new Facebook Group "Woodturners International", a family friendly place for inspiration.....Joining is simple-Just go to your Facebook page, type in "Woodturners International" and request to be a member! It is an awesome group! Contact Bill for additional info.

-"Golden Caring Hearts" is a group of 5 local ladies who pick a different charity each year for a fundraiser event. The 2021 event will be on 10/23 for Oshi Children's Hospital Cancer Research Center in Buffalo. They are requesting that Turners Club 2 donate in 1 of 3 ways: 1. Turn items for the Chinese Auction 2. Be a sponsor (to help cover fees) for $25.00 and/or 3. Attend the event. Many members already offered to donate for the Chinese Auction.... More info/ Discussion at our March meeting.

Our next meeting will be via Zoom on March 11th at 7pm. Just click the zoom meeting link sent on Groupworks and in your email.

Submitted by:

Linda Bennett, Club 2 Secretary